IF SUCCESSIVE

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1891.

PRICE ONE CENT.

HARRISON WRITES

A Letter Accepting Collector Erhardt's Resignation.

The President Says He Had No Thought It Would Be Offered.

Appraiser Cooper Denies that He Has Resigned or Will Be Removed.

The mail service between Cape May Point and New York must be somewhat out of kilter, for it was not until this morning that tring at the most of Twenty-third street. Brooklyn. The yacht is owned by Thomas Devendorf, who lives on board the yessel. Damage $300. nation tendered some six weeks ago.

In his letter, which was an autograph document, the President says:

"EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, CAPE MAY POINT, N. J., July 29, 1891.
"Hom. Joel B. Erhardt, New Fork City.

"DEAR SIR: I acknowledged the receipt of and at your letter resigning your office as Collector of the Port of New York, and advised you that I would, at a later date, communicate with you again. with you again.

"I now accept your resignation to take affect upon the appointment and qualification of your successor, and in doing so, I beg to cause she resisted improper proposals. say that I have held you, both personally and as a public officer, in the highest esteem and confidence, and had no other thought than confidence, and had no other thought than that you would continue to discharge the

With the kindest wishes and very high regards, sincerely yours, ... Band, Harnison

Mr. Erhardt did not reach his office till 11 o'clock this morning, but beyond giving out Mr. Erhardt did not reach his office till 11 avenue, was reported missing at Police Head-o'clock this morning, but beyond giving out to the reporters the contents of President has been suffering from nervous prostration. Harrison's missive, he had nothing further to say in regard to the situation

The invidious comments of the camp follow ers of Boss Platt in this city and throughout. Attorney street, was standing in front of her the State, had apparently not moved him, and he firmly declined to discuss any of the reported utterances of his party opponents.

He intimated, however, that he would remain at his post at the Custom House until his successor had qualified and came to reeve him of his duties. It was generally believed that Senator Fassett would put in an appearance sometime to-day, but if he does not come the Colonel He does not intend to join his family in New Hampshire this week.

This morning Senator Passett was in cor ference with the President at Cape May. A large number of the friends of the Collector called at the Custom-House during the morning. Many of them came and went away before he arrived at his office. Col. Erhardt does not care to receive any ndolences, but, on the coutrary, rejoices in a prospect of being soon relieved of the resonsibilities and cares of his office.

leg in front of 516 East Sixteenth street at 3 octook this morning. She couldn't tell how on where she was injured. She was sent to Bellevue liespital. the prospect of being soon relieved of the re-

With regard to the report that Appraiser Cooper would be removed from his office and Special Agent Wilbur appointed in his place, no information could be obtained at the Custom-House this morning. tom-House this morning.

Mr. Wilbur has gone to Washington to consult with Secretary Foster, it is said, and will not probably return to this city until tonot probably return to this city until to-

The fact that he has given up his position as Chief of the Special Treasury Agents to accept the office of Assistant Appraiser at a salary much smaller than the one he was receiving is taken by the political soothsayers

In the Tombs Court to-day Restaurant-Keeper Samuel Gilmore, of 80 South street, was held for trial on the charge of assault upon eleven-year-old Mary McKay, of 1206 ceiving is taken by the political soothsayers as a pretty clear indication that he has reason to expect promotion in the near future.

PASSETT WITH THE PRESIDENT. CAPE MAY, N. J., July 31.—Senator J. Sloat Fassett reached Cape May by the 11 o'clock train this morning and was taken by Secre-tary Halford to the President's cottage at Onco.

President Harrison would not speak about Secretary Noble's reported resignation this morning, but referred This Would correspondent to Private Secretary Halford who said Secretary Noble had not resigned and had no injention of doing so.

Appraiser Cooper Says He and Mr.

that the public should know that he is not to be forced out of office like Collector Erhardt, despite the many rumors to that effect.

He said this morning that he does not propose to resign, and that the relations between ex-senator Platt and himself are and have been for some of the most friendly character.

A friend of the Appraisor said that he knew that it was Mr. Platt who interfered to save Mr. Cooper from the effect of the report of the Hepburn Committee.

Jumped Overboard to Escape. Two boys were discovered in the act of stealing corn from a grain car at the Pennsylvania railroad grain elevator, foot of Third street, Jersey City, last night. They fied, and, being pursued by a watchman, jumped into the river to escape arrest. One of them, William Thompson, was captured, and to-day Justice O'Donneii held him for trial.

Robbed a Child's Savings Bank. Justice White, in the Harlem Court, to-day held Herman Friedman, twenty-seven years old, for trial on the charge of breaking into Mrs. Lena Sterbett's rooms, at 245 East One Hundred and Twenty-first street, and stealing 88 cents and a dollar bill from a child's savings batk.

She Will Miss the Baces To-Day. Mrs. Martha Schneer, summoned to Judge Bischoff's Court in supplementary proceed-

Stebbed for a Cigarette. Police Capt. Kenny, of Brooklyn, is looking for three Norwegians, whose names are unknown to him, who are charged with stabbing John Hunt, a ninetoen-year-old boy, living at de Dykman street. Hunt met the men yesterday on the corner of Columbia and Lorraine streets. They quarreiled ever a characte, and Hunt was stabbed in the breass.

Wabsab, pref
Wastern Union Yelegraph. Tell Tell Tell
Wastern Union Yelegraph. Tell Wastern Union Ye

penings About Town.

Book and Docket.

Complained of His Worthless Son. Charles Brown, of 59 First avenue, com-

Wants Pay for His Merchandise. rick L. Campbell against the Hardwood Dec-

Annie Mulligan, thirty-three years old, of 535 West Twenty-sixth street, became tosane to-day and was removed to Bellevue Bospital.

Law Reaches Umbrella Thioves. John Reynolds, Edward Colyer and John Murray, all young men, were to-day held for trial at defferson Market, charged with breaking a showcase at 451 Eighth avenue and attempting to steal a lot of umbrellas contained therein.

Accused by Her Mistress.

Another Missing Man. John Beand, thirty years old, of 2235 Firs

Insulted and Struck a Girl. While Jennic Alexander, a tailoress, of 15 residence, William Green, a young man whilives next door, passed by and made proposals to her. She remonstrated and Green struck her. Justice Duffy fined Green $5.

No Trace Yet of Cox. issing for two weeks, it was said to-day at detectives had as yet found no clue to s whereabouts.

A slight fire occurred on the third floor of he five-story flat at 210 East Fourteenth

Couldn't Tell How She Was Hurt, The police found Ellen Sullivan, a homeless woman, sixty-three years old, with a broken

Fifteen-year-old Irene McBride, who live with hermother in Ridgewood, was arrested

Charged with a Heinous Crime,

Lost His Job and $15 Besides. In the Essex Market Court to-day Henry Schmidt, John Lane and John Domann, o Brooklyn, were fined $15 each for thrashing Henry Siebrecht, of 27 Prince street, in a saloon on Chrystle street last night. The reason for the assault was that Siebrecht had one of his assailants discharged from a situation he held.

ere.	or en	e Bout
The Quotati	ons,
Suns Raf	Open.	High.
Pacific.	43	413
& Pitte	55	33
ce & Ohio	1112	1494
9.6	66	9494

	American Sugar Ref.	34	7714	763
	Atlantic & Pacific	79 .	434	43
E	Atch., Top. & Santa Fe. 31	78	25.7%	009
*		14	7210	421
	Chesapeake & Ohio	17	1447	148
	Chicago Cles	*	4482	4.35
,	Chicago Gas. Chicago, Burlington & Quincy 79	14	7917	795
t		37 1	.0:3	103
*	Chia Mil A St. Paul 61	16	61%	613
	Chic. Mil. & St. Paul 61 Chic., Mil. & St. Paul pref. 108		108	108
Н	4 this Block is, a Factorial to 64		14	69
	Chic & Eastern III 64	6.0	9014	903
t		79	5712	57
•	Clev. Cip. Chie, & St. L. pfd. 51		61.18	91
•	Col. & Hock Valley 22		23	92
1	Commercial Cable	16	10414	1045
Ĭ.	Dal Lack & Wast 131	1 7 3	3154	1303
i	Denver & Rio Grande pfd 41		4137	409
5	Dis A Cattle Feed 45		45	40.
S)	Edison Gen. Electric 96		9654	999
	Laclede Gas	29 .	1262	1065
	Lake Shore. 106	13	8812	488
	Louisville & Nashville 68	200	6812	671
	Louis, New Alb. & Chl 18		16	18
_/	Missouri Pacific	16	6456	64
S	Nat. Cord. Co 88	12	88	861
š	Nat. Lead 14 New Jersey Central 106	34	1474	149
	New Jersey Contral 106	24	106)4	100
5	New York Central 98		9814	983
2	N V & New England 31	79	64	21
ķ.	N. Y., Chic. & St. L. 1st pref. 64 N. Y., Lake Eric & West	11	1784	17.
٠.	N. V. Lake Erie & West, pref. 45	Q.	2852	461
	Woodalk & Watt ofd 4)	e .	47	47
	Northern Pacific 26		20%	263
	Northern Pacific 20 Northern Pacific pref. 60		6196	583
٠.	North American. 12		1356	111
5	Ontario & West 14		1419	533
*	Dr. Ratiway & Naviga 32		3912	991
5	Philadelphia & Reading 26	2	0.642	24
			1.532	165
ā	Peo. Dec & Evans 13 P. & Western pref. 33	100	33	93
t	Bullman Palace Car Co 170		175	170.
٠,	Blob & West Point Ter 10		11116	1.09
	*Rome, Wat. & Ogdens 105	м :	10594	1055
	St. Paul & Omalia	12	2004	2003
			1152	111
y	「重要基準性」を関係性をよっとのようとともなってものににした。 正会		97	955
٩	Union Pacific		4044	395
۰	Walterly uref	Ni.	2152	21
	Wabash, pref. Wastern Union Yelegraph 78	94	1992	188
	Wheeling & Lake Eric 47	94	254	294
6	"Wheeling & Lake Erie prof '11	Ni.	12	71

To-Day's Record of Minor Hap- The Vast Hopkins Estate Willed to a New Yorker.

Chronicles Briefly Drawn from Note- Mrs. Mary Scarles's Adopted Son Ignored in Her Testament.

By the will of Mrs. Mary F. S. Scarles,

Mrs. Searles's will was filed for probate yesterday at the Essex Registry in Salem. Mass.
It is a brief document, but its succinctness is nevertheless effective, and the vast wealth that was once the property of Mark Hopkits is now entirely transferred to his widow's second husband, to the utter exclusion of

Mr. Searles, beales hence a colleged and the horses entered were so evenly matched that betting was very brief,
The second event, in which King Crab, Homer and My Felicov net, was the feature of the day, and king Crab cartied of the day. cond husband, to the utter exclusion of Mrs. Searles's adopted son, Timothy Honkins.

The will reads as follows: Know all men by these presents that t, tary F. L. Searles, wife of Edward F. Searles, if Methuen, in the county of Essea, and com-nonwealth of Mussachusetts, being of sound

WORLD "WANTS,"

Their Rapid Increase.

NUMBER PRINTED DURING

TheLast 12 Mos. 792.134

One Year Ago 729,578

Two Years Ago.... 680,640

Four Years Ago 572,413

Seven Years Ago.....

hard, of 54 Wall street. Particular interest also attaches to the will team the remance agreemeding the courtship of Mr. searles and the wealthy Californian's widow. When Mrs. Searles, then Mrs. Hopkins. moved to Massachusetta she erected a palatial mansion at Great Barrington. The house and the grounds are said to have been valued At $5,000,000.

Great Barrington was the home of Mrs. Hopkins's childhood, her parents removing there from this city soon after her birth. After the death of Mark Hopkins in Califor nia, she came to New York and resided at the widow of the California millionaire Mark Windsor Hotel, but her Summers were spout plained at Essex Market to-day that his Hopkins, her husband, Edward F. Searies, of at Great Barrington, and because of its puras-

Mr. Scarles, besides being a cultured and refined gentleman, possessed a thorough half fur anowiedge of architecture. Becoming acquainted with Mrs. Hopkins, he naturally took an interest in the construction of her Fellow at Nine Furlongs.

Crowd of Visitors.

Weather opened clear, cool and bright at son Arthur was a worthless loater, and Jus-son Englishment of the purify sent the young man to the istand. Fortune of $30,000,000. purses only. There were six events on the card, and the horses entered were so evenly

> For maiden two-year-olds, five and one

> S Panhaudie 110 Sime 6-1

A CHANCE OF CHANCES!

THE WORLD

"Want" Advertisers,

Under the Classifications of

HOUSES AND APARTMENTS TO RENT, ROOMS TO RENT, BOARD

WANTED AND BOARDERS WANTED,

FROM AUGUST 1st TO SEPTEMBER 30th.

AS FOLLOWS:

THREE INSERTIONS 30% DISC

Repeated Advertisements must be the same and the Insertions SUCCESSIVE.

Insertion - - 15% Two Insertions - - 25%

Holds Good Only During August and September.

Do Not Fail to Take Advantage of It!

King Crab Defeated Homer and My Judge Barrett Refuses to Order the Says He Deesn't Even Know that Comptroller to Pay Their Salaries.

Fine Weather Brings Out a Large Must First Pay to the City Sheriff's Reports of Wanamaker's Resigna-Fees Hiegally Collected.

DAY AT SARATOGA. CORONERS BEATEN IN COURT. THE PRESIDENT DENIES IT

Judge Barrell, of the Squreme Court, after hearing argument to-day, requaed to grant requiring the Comptroller is pay their sala-ries, which he has been withholding because behalf of the President. Secretary Halford on they retained certain fees which came into said: their office instead of turning them over to the city treasury.

He argued that the law provided that the Wagnitage so." He argued that the law provided that the orders where, $5,000, was in fleu of all secretary Noble, of the Interior Department

2 Wood and Haby

Silve 6-1

They were certainly entitled, he contended,

Pashauffe 119 Ritchis 5-1

Give Bay, Montella, Furnish, Marmont, they were paid by pulsate persons and were Noble Means to Resign.

tion Denied at Washington,

CAPE MAY, N. J., July 31.—The reported resignation from the Cabinet of Secretary chaltre, representing his brother Coroners, Noble was absolutely and emphatically denies this morning by Private Secretary Halford on Only Prompt Work of Officers Averts

"There is not a word of tenth in it. Sorr tary Noble has not resigned from the Cabluet. Mr. Greenbaum, of Rays & Greenbaum, and as far as the President knows, has no in sensation, local etc., which were a charge had tendered his resignation having been the County. the Interior Department, was this morning saked for information on the subject.

He said in a very positive manner that the seport was untrue, and declared his belief that it was simply a revival of previous that it was simply a revival of previous rumors which had been denied by the Secretary Noble is spending a broke out over the boiler-room near the port. vacation near Richneld Springs.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Washington, July 21 .- This morning's anment of the resignation of Secretary little excitement or surprise, as it is a marter | gera. of old report. Naturally, however, it has oncastoned a renewal of guesty as to the future for a few minutes amounted to a panic. career of the Cabinet officer, who is said to foreign mission.

But close upon such reports as this came room, and were another to the effect that it was Wans-sclous condition. maker's resignation which the President had In hand, the Administration having been convinced at last that the good man from Phila- catastrophs. delphia had become an incubus which it was ot wise to attempt to carry. There seemed to be no one in Washington

Acting Secretary Chandler denied in very and a stream of water was soon playing on positive terms that there was any truth in the flames. As to the Wanamaker rumor, it is given ou ome to the point of withdrawing from the For a day or two there has been a story about town that the President was holding the resignation of a Cabinet officer under consideration, pending his choice of a suc-cessor to the retiring Secretary. Friends of Mr. Wanamaker assert that today's rumor of his coming withdrawal was simply a filling in of the report referred to by the use of the Postmaster-General's name. QUAY TO STICK TO THE SENATE

Will Gen. Reeder Succeed Him

the National Committee? INPECTAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. PHILADELPHIA, July 31,-In an interview Ith a Times reporter Mr. Quay emphatically denies that his withdrawal from the Repubitean National Committee is to be followed by his resignation from the Senate.

Gen. B. Frank Reeder, of Easton, has alrendy been spoken of as Senator Quay's successor in the Committee. Shortly after the Senator's arrival last hight Gen. Reeder ntered the Continental, having left Spring take, where he is spending the Summer with lake, where he is spending the Summer with its family, in the afternoon.

Although it was said that Senator Quay had not sent for Gen. Reeder and didn't know that he was coming, the first question the General asked after registering was what rooms the Senator had been assigned to.

Gen. Reeder said that the talk of his being a successor to Senator Quay in the National Committee was a complete surprise to him, and that he had known nothing of it. His meeting with Senator Quay, he said, was simply a coincidence.

COY MRS. LESLIE CARTER.

Not Yet Able to Be Examined as to DOTA. Carlotta colt and Fauvette also ran.

Auction pools: Mount McGregor, $25; Morsella, $20. Marmont, $5.

Auction pools: Mount McGregor, $25; Morsella, $20. Marmont, $5.

These fees he said, were paid to a clerk up to the county, the said of watchers and others deputted to act in right second and Fauvette also ran.

The said for watchers and others deputted to act in right second and Fauvette also ran.

The said for watchers and others deputted to act in right second and Fauvette also ran.

The said for watchers and others deputted to act in right second and Fauvette also ran.

The said for watchers and others deputted to act in right second and Fauvette also ran.

The said for watchers and others deputted to act in right second and Fauvette also ran.

The said for watchers and others deputted to act in right second and Fauvette also ran.

The said for watchers and others deputted to act in right second and Fauvette also ran.

The said for watchers and said second and Fauvette also ran.

The said for watchers and place to the clip of the clip The autopsies were made by direction of the corporation of the state over to the Treasury all fees revealed to them for acting in the capacity of said.

The autopsies were made by direction of the first over to the Treasury all fees revealed to the said over to the them for acting in the capacity of said.

The autopsies were made by direction of the first over the

THEIR CHILD WAS DROWNED.

Body of Little Ernest Loeb Found in the River and Taken Home. The body of little Ernest Loch, only eight years old, was found this morning by Polices man Celler, of the Delancey street squad, floating in the East River off the foot of stanton street.

The lad had been missing from his home, at

The lad had been missing from his home, at 55 Common street, since Tuesday morning it is supposed that he went down to the dock to swim, and was accidentally drowner.

His body was taken to his parent's home.

Depot Blown Up by Powder. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 31. Fifty kees of with subsequently describe her, was discharged after trial by Police Justine Hay the service of papers by the young man in the Sheriff's office who note as an alleged deputy of the incoming. The evidence did not support the charges.

Fire Commissioners Raise Salaries.

The Fire Commissioners have raised the Stephen Laird, twenty years old, of 685 Amsterdam avenue, while playing ball to-day

PANIC ON A STEAMER.

Fire Breaks Out on Elm City, with 1,300 Excursionists Aboard.

an Awful Catastrophe.

A Man and Woman Almost Suffecated in Their Stateroom.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 31.--When the steamer Elm City, of New Haven, which lets New York at 7 o'clock last night with about paddic-wheel and blazed up in a most alarming manner. The flames were mostly below deck, but a leuse black smoke curled up from below Noble, of the Interior Department, created and struck terror to the hearts of the passen-

> The excitement on board was intense and Women screamed and the little ones clung to their mothers in terror.

Rumor insisted that he was to go either to A man and woman in state-room 49, which the bench in the new Circuit Court or to fill a is immediately ever the boiler, were almost sufficiated by the smoke which filled the room, and were carried below in an uncon-

> The crew were set at work with axes chops ping away the woodwork in order to get at the blazs. to confirm the revivilled report of Mr. Noble's

An aperture was cut in the floor of the resignation. At the interior Department, state-room over the boiler, a hose inserted

After working about an hour the men managed to extinguish the fire. The blaze on what is said to be the Postmaster Gen-eral's own authority that that official has not lightled the woodwork in the engine-room. originated from an overheated boiler, which The man and woman who were overcom by the smoke recovered before the boat reached this city.

A few of the women fainted during the are, but no one was seriously injured

SHRINE'S CHESTERFIELD CUP.

Cuttlestone Second in the Last Day Event at Goodwood. INY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Lannon, July 31.—This was the last day of the Goodwood meeting. The event of the day was the race for the Chesterfield Cup (handle ap), value 300 sovs., added to a sweepstakes of 15 soys, each, for three-year-olds and up ward; the second to receive 50 sova out of the stakes; one mile and a quarter,

It was won by Mr. Henry Milner's four-yearold chestnut filly Shrine, by Clairvaux or Isonomy, out of Pilgrimage. Lord Bradford's three-year-old bay colt Cuttlestone, by Retreat, out of Posthums, was second, and Mr G. Ryall's four-year-old Elonement third.

SUPPLE IS DISINFECTED.

He Drank East Side Whiskey, Carbolic Acid, Pearline and Borax. Henry Supple, plano-maker, thirty-one years old, wound up a spree this morning by a remarkable attempt at suicide at his home, 646 East Thirteenth street, rear.

According to the police, Supple took a dose of carbolic acid, pearline and borax, but at the house it was said he drank a mixture the house it was said he drank a mixture which had been left for disinfecting purposes, when there was a contagious disease in the house some time ago. He is in Believue Hospital a prisoner.

Supple came from Boston, and was employed in Seabury's plano factory. He had been drinking heavily for a week. He has a wife and three children, who are in destitute circumstances. The hospital surgeons say he will recover.

Mayors May Fight for the Nomination. It was stated this morning on the authority of a well-informed Tammany Hall man that, should the Kings County delegation in the Democratic State Convention persist in UMBRELLA STAB IN THE EYE.

Young Callahan Was Skylarking and Got Hurt. Daniel Callaban, seventeen years old, of 135 pewder in the Alabama Great Southern Depot York street, Brooklyn, is suffering from a

The White Star steamship Britannic, which avenue, while the other two executors named in Mrs. Searless will are also New Yorkers.

These executors, [Thomas F. Stillman and Thomas Hubbard, are members of the well Thomas Hubbard, are members of the wellings to-day, appeared, and when notified to be ready for examination at 2 o'clock, pro-tested, saying she wasted to go to the races. She was ordered peremptorily to be in court at the time set.

CITY NEWS TERSELY TOLD. INHERITS THIRTY MILLIONS.

orative Company upon a claim of $2,726.24

Flames on the Richard E. Fox.

Policemen Dey Broken.
At a meeting of the Newark Police Board, duties of your office until the expiration of its term.

In and held for trial on a charge of stealing a gold watch and chain from her employer, Mrs. Lenaing, of 340 Thrid street, that city.

At the office of Accountant James Cox, 42 broadway, who has been so mysteriously street, at 4 o'clock this morning. It was caused by a curtain catching fire from a gas jet in the rooms of Annie Weishman. The damage was small.

Irone Had His Watch.

In the Tombs Court to-day Restaurant-

/A 6/4		emer a	istrators and to provide in ns	High 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	Low. 7616 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100	Timothy Hop occasioned by as the execute Edward F. Bea E. Stillman as request that of the Edward F. Bea will in my filention and the tion, that he a my life, witho death, if he shock his said wills, codicil of reedom to die or in any other said, gift or othis property, and rights for his death, if I in witness.

wills, codicil, and shall have curried from to dispose by such new will or codicil, or in any other manner, whether by deed, so it any other manner, whether by deed, so it any other manner, whether by deed, so it any other manner, and it reserves stail or any other manner of the was worth fally $1.000,000,000 that Mr. Searles is the should survive lim.

Stratagem won the race with Gold Dapar by fortune and wise involved and race in the sail to black until the case, where the was more than inside the held back until the sataries must be held back until the sataries and strategic for the was more than inside the held back until the sataries and the sataries and the sataries must be held back until the sataries and the sa

An Evening World reporter this morning interest. earned that the husband, who is now a many times millionaire, has a residence at 60 / ifth avenue, while the other two executors named

President Hunt Swinging the Circle.

WON'T BE FORCED OUT.

Appraiser Cooper Says He and Mr.

Platt Are On Good Terms.

Appraiser Marvelle W. Cooper is anxious that the public should know that he is not to be forced out of office of the forced out of office office out of out of office out of out of out office out of out of out of out office out of out of out of out of out office out of out office out of out of out office out of out offic ried in Trinfty Chapel, in West Twenty-sixth street, this city, by the Rev. Dr. Platt. Shortly after their marriage the happy shortly after their marriage the happy could removed to Methuen, Mass., where they passed most of their time, although Mr. Searles still maintains his city residence at the marriage that the search of the removed to Methuen, Mass., where duple removed to Methuen, Mass., where they passed most of their time, although Mr. Searles still maintains his city residence at the marriage the happy could be removed to Methuen, Mass., where they passed most of their time, although Mr. Searles still maintains his city residence at the marriage the happy could be removed to Methuen, Mass., where they passed most of their time, although Mr. Searles still maintains his city residence at the marriage the happy could be removed to Methuen, Mass., where they passed most of their time, although Mr. Searles still maintains his city residence at the marriage the happy could be removed to Methuen, Mass., where they passed most of their time, although Mr. Searles still maintains his city residence at the marriage the happy could be removed to Methuen, Mass., where they passed most of their time, although Mr. Searles still maintains his city residence at the maintains his city residence a codicils, and shall have entire an estate inventoried at $21,700,000. All of Auction Pools.—Stratagent. 25. Gold Dottons with or codicil. this he bequeathed to his widow, except inv. $15. Lady Unde. $15. in d. $15. as 4,000,000, and when she married Mr. Searles Lady Unde carried three a d. s half pounds to the widow. an estate inventoried at $21,700,000. All of rence, Mass.; William Othnici Norris, Methuen, Mass.

With all that has been printed concerning the wealthy lady and her fortunate husband,
it is somewhat remarkable that no mention
it is somewhat remarkable that no mention has been made of the fact that Mr. Searies is a New Yorker.

A New Yorker.

A New Yorker.

A New Yorker. Found Dead in His Bed.

Naries, Wale, Section Grangs,
1 Strategers, 110 Miller, 2 1
2 Unid Boiler, 106 T. Williams, 2 1
2 Tactician, 114 Serman,
Sam Casey, Lady Under and Oberlin also

The Fire Commissioners have raised the Daniel GBfillian was found dead in his bed salary of Superintendent of Buildings Thomas

STEADY GROWTH

NUMBER OF COLUMNS PRINTED DURING

The Last 12 Mos. 20,859

One Year Ago... . 20,133

the idea. The Comptroller asked the Corporation ones for an opinion and the latter decided hat the salaries must be held back until the cas were turned over a fax weeks ago, and till the corporers have made no statement of Policy-Dealer Gathered In.